World Crest Emblem

The World Crest is an emblem of the World Organization of the Scout Movement. It is a symbol of membership in the world brotherhood of Scouting.

The emblem is made of two colors – white and purple. The fleur-de-lis and rope tied into a square knot are white. Purple symbolizes leadership and help given to other people. White symbolizes purity.

Friends Far and Near Opening

Materials:

Papers with flags from different countries on them with the lines for Cub Scouts to say on the back

Cubmaster or Den leader: Some Cub Scouts are going to welcome us today and teach us about Scouting around the world.

Cub Scout #1: (Holding an American flag) I welcome the Tigers, Wolves, Bears, Webelos Scouts to our meeting.

Cub Scout #2: (Holding a South African flag) If we were meeting in South Africa, I might have welcomed some of you as Cheetahs.

Cub Scout #3: (Holding a Japanese flag) If we were meeting in Japan, I might have welcomed some of you as Beavers.

Cub Scout #4: (Holding an Australian flag) If we were meeting in Australia, I might have welcomed some of you as Joeys.

Cub Scout #5: (Holding a Brazilian flag) If we were meeting in Brazil, I might have welcomed some of you as Lobinhos.

Cub Scout #6: (Holding a World Crest) But in every country, I would have called you my friend.

Cubmaster or Den leader: (Holding a picture of a smiling face) These Scouts may be called by different names and wear different uniforms, but we all have one thing in common. A Scout is friendly.

Let's say the Pledge of Allegiance together and then say the Scout Oath and Law.

Cub Scout #1: I welcome the Tigers, Wolves, Bears, Webelos Scouts to our meeting.

Cub Scout #2: If we were meeting in South Africa, I might have welcomed some of you as Cheetahs.

Cub Scout #3: If we were meeting in Japan, I might have welcomed some of you as Beavers.

Cub Scout #4: If we were meeting in Australia, I might have welcomed some of you as Joeys.

Cub Scout #5: If we were meeting in Brazil, I might have welcomed some of you as Lobinhos.

Australian Circle Game

Materials:

Balls (one per group of 12-15 Cub Scouts)

Instructions:

Cub Scouts form a circle with arm's-length spacing. A Cub Scout is chosen to be "it". "It" stands inside the circle. The players pass a ball from one to the other. "It" attempts to touch it or catch it. If "It" touches or catches the ball, the last player who touched it is "It." The ball may be passed across the circle at random or to the next player in either direction.

Variation – A second ball is added to the game. "It" has a ball and stands in the center of the circle, holding a ball. "It" tries to throw the ball to someone in the outside circle. Another ball is also being passed around the circle from one person to the next. "It" may throw the ball to anyone in the outside circle, but the ball is usually thrown to the person about to receive the ball being passed around the circle. If either ball is dropped, the one who dropped it changes places with "it".

Good-bye Closing

Materials:

None

Cubmaster or den leader:

As we learn about other people and Scouts from other parts of the world, it can be good to speak their language. Let's end our meeting by saying "good-bye" in some different languages.

In English, we say, "Good-bye" – say "Good-bye" with me – [Everyone says "Good-bye"].

In Spanish, we say, "Adios" – [Everyone says "Adios"].

[Go through each of the following words in the same pattern. When reading the pronunciations in parentheses, put the emphasis on the capitalized letters.]

French—Au revoir (oh ruh-VWAHR)

Italian—Arrivederci (ahr-REE-va-DER-chee)

German—Auf widersehen (owf-VEE-der-zayn)

Swedish—Vises (vee-SAISS)

Afrikaans—Totsiens (TOTE-seens)

Japanese—Sayonara (sai-OH-nar-ah)

Hindi—Namaste (na-MAHS-tay)

We live in a wonderful world! Have a great week, Cub Scouts!
